COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course focuses on studying the Pauline letters in their first-century historical context. Emphasis will be placed on Paul's biography, the literary structure and rhetorical strategy of his letters, social and political context of Pauline communities, and the specific issues addressed in each of the letters. We will also consider some of the recent trends in Pauline studies, including the so-called New Perspectives on Paul, feminist, and postcolonial interpretations.

DUE TO COVID-19, CLASSES AND OFFICE HOURS WILL BE HELD ONLINE VIA ZOOM. MEETING ID AND PW WILL BE ANNOUNCED VIA ANNOUNCEMENT BEFORE THE FIRST DAY OF OUR CLASS.

COURSE OBJECTIVES
By the end of this course, students will be able to:

1. Learn about the historical, social, and political contexts of Paul’s letters, the Roman Empire and the Second Temple Judaism.
2. Understand typical literary and rhetorical features of Paul's letters.
3. Understand Paul’s letters as a record of struggles, debates, and collaborations over key theological and political issues of the earliest churches.
4. Understand theological and social implications of a particular interpretation of Paul’s arguments, both in history and the present time.
5. Develop skills for a close, careful reading of early Christian texts, especially the Pauline letters.

Student Guidance on Wearing Cloth Facial Coverings

All OSU students, employees, and visitors must wear a facial covering (mask) upon entering any campus building and when near or encountering others. This includes during class. Students who fail to wear their facial covering in class will be asked to leave the classroom and return after retrieving their facial covering.

Students who continuously fail to comply with this university expectation will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct Education and Administration for the Student Code of Conduct’s Failure to Comply policy.

COVID-19 can be spread when people are asymptomatic, which means they do not know they are sick yet. Wearing facial coverings has been shown to reduce the spread of COVID-19 to others. It is important that OSU is a safe place to work and study, and taking this step creates a safe environment for all of us as advised by the CDC. More on facial covering guidelines.

Your success as a student is our top priority so the following information is provided to answer questions most often asked by students. Be assured the OSU faculty and staff want you to be successful in your educational pursuits. If you have questions or concerns, please be sure to seek help EARLY! We are here to assist you.

Note: Outreach, Internet, and short courses have unique drop/add and refund deadlines; lookup the specific deadlines for these courses on the Short, Internet, and Outreach Class Schedules page of the Registrar’s website http://registrar.okstate.edu/SIO-Schedule.

DROPPING A COURSE AND WITHDRAWING FROM THE UNIVERSITY students often confuse these terms.

Dropping a Course refers to the dropping of one or more classes while remaining enrolled in at least one other OSU course for a given semester. Drop and refund deadlines can be found within the Academic Calendar. Summer courses and other short courses that vary from the standard 16-week semester follow proportionate drop and refund periods.

Withdrawing from the university means dropping all courses and you are no longer enrolled for the current semester. The withdrawal process is initiated with your academic advisor. Withdrawal deadlines can be found within the Academic Calendar. Withdrawal deadlines involving summer courses and other short courses that vary from the standard 16-week semester follow proportionate withdrawal periods.

Exceptions to the deadlines above may only be considered by petition due to documented extraordinary circumstances and committee approval. The Retroactive Drop/Withdraw and Refund of Tuition and Fees Petition is available on the Academic Affairs’ website: http://academicaffairs.okstate.edu/content/adding-dropping-and-withdrawing-courses.

ALERTS AND RESCHEDULING

If the OSU campus officially closes due to inclement weather or other emergencies, alerts are provided to local news media and posted on the OSU website. Missed exams, classes, or assignments may be rescheduled at times outside the normal meeting schedule. If valid, documented circumstances prohibit students from attending the rescheduled classes, instructors should provide reasonable alternative means for makeup.
ACADEMIC INTEGRITY
101 Whitehurst/405-744-5627/http://academicintegrity.okstate.edu
OSU is committed to maintaining the highest standards of integrity and ethical conduct. This level of ethical behavior and integrity will be maintained in this course. Participating in a behavior that violates academic integrity (e.g., unauthorized collaboration, plagiarism, multiple submissions, cheating on examinations, fabricating information, helping another person cheat, unauthorized advance access to examinations, altering or destroying the work of others, and altering academic records) will result in an official academic sanction. Violations may subject you to disciplinary action including the following: receiving a failing grade on an assignment, examination or course, receiving a notation of a violation of academic integrity on your transcript, and being suspended from the University. Students have the right to appeal the charge.

COPYRIGHT & FAIR USE POLICY OF COURSE MATERIALS
Course materials may not be published, leased, sold to others, or used for any purpose other than appropriate OSU-related individual or group study without the written permission of the faculty member in charge of the course and other copyright holders. This paragraph grants you a limited license giving you access to materials for this course, including PowerPoint slides, audio/video recordings, written, or other materials, for appropriate OSU-related educational use only. Lectures should not be recorded without permission from the faculty member and must not be further disseminated or shared. Assignments, quizzes, and exams (individual questions or in its entirety) should not be uploaded to websites offering note-sharing, tutoring, or other academic help (free or by paid subscription).

CLASS ATTENDANCE
Class attendance is a critical component of learning; therefore, you are expected to attend and participate fully in all scheduled class meetings. While no penalty may be assessed for class absences during Fall 2020, you may not be permitted to make up certain class activities if absent. If you are ill, you should stay home. If you are required to participate in official university-sponsored activities or military training, you should receive an excused absence unless the written course attendance policy indicates otherwise. If you will be absent from class for sponsored activities, you must provide prior notification of the planned absence to the instructor. You may be required to submit assignments or take examinations before the planned absence.

COURSE SCHEDULE ADJUSTMENTS FOR FALL
Courses that usually meet for 50 minute class periods (e.g. Monday, Wednesday, and Friday classes) have been shortened by 5 minutes per class meeting to allow more travel time for students and faculty between classes. Instructors will be expected to provide additional assignments or instruction to make up the contact time for these courses to ensure classes meet the required semester credit hour standards.

INSTRUCTOR OFFICE HOURS
During Fall 2020 instructors and teaching assistants shall offer office hours online. Students are asked to respect the posted virtual office hours of all instructors and teachings assistants.

PRE-FINALS WEEK POLICY
Final examinations are scheduled at the end of each semester and are preceded by pre-finals week, which begins seven days prior to the first day of finals. During Fall 2020 pre-finals week, all normal class activities will continue in an online format; however, no assignment, test, or examination accounting for more than 5% of the course grade may be given; and no activity or field trip may be scheduled that conflicts with another class. This excludes makeup and laboratory examinations, out-of-class assignments (or projects) made prior to pre-finals week and independent study courses. No student or campus organization may hold meetings, banquets, receptions, or may sponsor or participate in any activity, program, or related function that requires student participation. For additional information, contact the Office of Academic Affairs, 405-744-5627, 101 Whitehurst.

FINAL EXAM OVERLOAD POLICY
Final exams for Fall 2020 will be held in an online format. In the event you have three or more final exams scheduled for a single day, you are entitled to arrange with the instructor of the highest numbered course (4 digit course number) or two highest, if you have four finals on one day, to re-schedule that examination(s) at a time and place of mutual convenience during final exam week. If the final exam overload includes a common final exam, the common final exam is excluded from rescheduling unless multiple common exams are scheduled at the same time. You should submit this request in writing, with a copy of your class schedule, at least two weeks prior to the beginning of final exam week. The instructor has one week prior to the beginning of final exam week to arrange a mutually convenient time and place for administration of the final exam. After one week, if an agreement cannot be reached, take the request to the department head.
