Course Time and Location: CRN 70727 TR 12:00-1:15 CLBN 101

Office Hours: by appointment and via Zoom (email to schedule a meeting)

Course Objectives: This course will introduce students to religions from around the world and students will gain the tools to study and discuss those religions objectively in an academic setting. Students will gain the tools to analyze the concepts of religion and how it applies to the study of different cultures and beliefs.

Grading: Three midterm exams will account for 15% of the final grade (each) and the final exam will account for 25% of the student’s final grade. The Religion Responses will account for 30% of the student’s final grade.

Lectures and Attendance: The plan is to have in-class lectures which will be simultaneously streamed via Zoom or Canvas’ Big Blue Button. Students attending class virtually will be able to see my computer screen (slides, written information, images, etc.) as well as hear my voice. These virtual meetings will be recorded and made available to students in Canvas.

Due to health concerns surrounding the COVID-19 pandemic, there will be no penalties for absences in this class.

If you are at a high risk for COVID-19 or otherwise feel uncomfortable attending class, please feel free to attend virtually. If you are sick—even if it does not appear to be related to COVID-19—please stay home!

However, if you do attend class in person, there will be an assigned seating chart and attendance will be taken before each lecture. This has been mandated in order to help with contact tracing in the event students test positive for COVID-19.

Finally, for the health of all students and faculty, office hours this semester will be held completely virtually. I will hold office hours using Zoom. To set up a meeting, please contact me via email.

Religion Responses: For each religion covered in this course, students will be expected to write a response and analysis which highlights the observable aspects that we can examine as we study that particular religion. Emphasis should be given to concepts like historical accuracy and descriptive accuracy. The total for completing all 12 assignments will account for 30% of the student’s final grade.

Classroom Procedure: Students should maintain proper behavior in this course. Interactions and discussions should be done with respect and compassion given to others.

Disability Procedures: Accommodation letters should be received by the instructor as soon as possible to ensure adequate accommodations are available.
